

What is your favorite TV show to binge-watch: "Shtisel"
What book are you reading for pleasure right now:
 "The Prime Ministers" by Yehuda Avner
What would be your advice to the newest member of the bar entering your firm: Nothing comes fast. Try to be patient and build your career through consistent hard work.

Name: Russell J. Kutell
Hometown: Columbus
Firm: Frost Brown Todd LLC
Practice area: Business litigation
Undergraduate: University of Pennsylvania
Law school: Georgetown University
Synagogue: Temple Beth Shalom

Name: Kimberly Land
Hometown: Upper Arlington
Firm: Bailey Cavalieri LLC
Practice area: Commercial and real estate finance; unclaimed property
Undergraduate: University of Dayton
Law school: The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law
In 5 words or less, how would your co-workers describe you: Dedicated to providing quality representation

Would your "significant other" agree? (with the above): He better
What one item can always be found in your briefcase or laptop bag: Sunscreen
What electronic gadget makes your work life easier: Calculator
How do you unwind after a long day at work: Hot yoga
If you could take a six-month sabbatical from work, how and where would you spend it: Yoga teacher training in Bali
What was your first concert, and whom did you go with: Christina Aguilera in 2000 with my mother, Dr. Rona Shapiro
What is your favorite comfort food: Chicken noodle soup with extra egg noodles
What book are you reading for pleasure right now: "The Silmarillion" by J.R.R. Tolkien and "The Fall of Gondolin" also by J.R.R. Tolkien
What would be your advice to the newest member of the bar entering your firm: Don't pack fish for lunch

Name: David Leland
Hometown: Columbus
Firm: Carpenter Lipps & Leland
Undergraduate: The Ohio State University
Law school: Capital University Law School
In 5 words or less, how would your co-workers describe you: Passionate, good-natured and focused

Would your "significant other" agree? (with the above): Yes
What one item can always be found in your briefcase or laptop bag: Reading glasses
What electronic gadget makes your work life easier: My phone
How do you unwind after a long day at work: Watching or reading about baseball
If you could take a six-month sabbatical from work, how and where would you spend it: San Francisco at Oracle Park
What was your first concert: Blood Sweat and Tears

What is your favorite comfort food: Lorna Doone cookies
What is your favorite TV show to binge-watch: "3rd Rock from the Sun"
What book are you reading for pleasure right now: "The Warmth of Other Suns" by Isabel Wilkerson

Name: Joseph Lipps
Hometown: Bexley
Firm: Bailey Cavalieri
Practice area: Directors and officers liability, insurance coverage
Undergraduate: University of Michigan
Law school: The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law
Synagogue: Temple Israel
In 5 words or less, how would your co-workers describe you: Hardworking

Would your "significant other" agree? (with the above): Yes (perhaps too much)
What one item can always be found in your briefcase or laptop bag: Used travel mugs
What electronic gadget makes your work life easier: iPhone
How do you unwind after a long day at work: We have two kids under 5, so there's not a lot of unwinding.
If you could take a six-month sabbatical from work, how and where would you spend it: I'd train for a scuba license and spend time with the family in the Tropics.
What was your first concert, and whom did you go with: Bob Dylan with my dad
What is your favorite comfort food: Skyline Chili
What is your favorite TV show to binge-watch: "Schitt's Creek"
What book are you reading for pleasure right now: "Cloud Cuckoo Land" by Anthony Doerr
What would be your advice to the newest member of the bar entering your firm: Be patient. There is a steep learning curve that takes time to scale, but it is undoubtedly attainable if you work hard.

Name: Harlan S. Louis
Hometown: New Albany
Firm: Bailey Cavalieri
Practice area: estate planning, probate, and tax
Undergraduate: Miami University
Law school: University of Dayton and University of Florida
Synagogue: Temple Beth Shalom
What one item can always be found in your briefcase or laptop bag: Extra COVID-19 masks

What electronic gadget makes your work life easier: My iPhone, even though I really, really miss my Blackberry
How do you unwind after a long day at work: On the couch with my wife and our two dogs
If you could take a six-month sabbatical from work, how and where would you spend it: Following my beloved Cincinnati Reds, home and away, until they are eliminated from playoff contention, which should be early July. Hoping that they are touring during my sabbatical, following the legendary Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band. And often visiting my daughter as she embarks on her new career, as I am immensely proud of her and I can't wait to see all that she accomplishes.
What was your first concert, and whom did you go with: An unforgettable family outing seeing The Charlie Daniels Band
What is your favorite comfort food: Skyline Chili and Graeter's black raspberry chip ice cream

What is your favorite TV show to binge-watch: "Ted Lasso," "Blue Bloods," and "The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel"
What book are you reading for pleasure right now: I am eagerly awaiting the next book by Bill Rabinowitz
What would be your advice to the newest member of the bar entering your firm: Never stop asking questions. Be patient as the learning curve is long and steep. Read up on the law and new developments. Meet regularly with your mentors. Maintain your contacts. Serve your clients well. Don't click on suspicious emails. Maintain life-work balance.

Name: Pamela N Maggied
Hometown: Columbus
Practice area: Bankruptcy and debt issues
Undergraduate: Ohio University
Law school: The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law
Synagogue: Tifereth Israel
In 5 words or less, how would your co-workers describe you: Straight-shooter

What one item can always be found in your briefcase or laptop bag: A book
What electronic gadget makes your work life easier: Computer
How do you unwind after a long day at work: Watching women's sports
If you could take a six-month sabbatical from work, how and where would you spend it: Relaxing at home with a book and maybe a few short trips to visit friends. But I'm a solo practice and six months would put me out of business. I'd rather think about a series of three- to four-day weekends.
What is your favorite comfort food: Oranges
What book are you reading for pleasure right now: Isaac Asimov's "Foundation" and "Robot" series
What would be your advice to the newest member of the bar entering your firm: Don't be anything but honest and straightforward with clients, other lawyers and the court. People have long memories and once word gets around that your word can't be trusted, you'll have a hard time overcoming that.

Name: Terri W. Meldrum
Hometown: Columbus
Firm: OhioHealth Corp.
Practice area: Health care
Undergraduate: The Ohio State University
Law school: The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law
Synagogue: Beth Shalom
In 5 words or less, how would your co-workers describe you: Focused, collaborative, driven and fun

Would your "significant other" agree? (with the above): Yes
What one item can always be found in your briefcase or laptop bag: Pen and paper
What electronic gadget makes your work life easier: None
How do you unwind after a long day at work: Time with my family or take a run
If you could take a six-month sabbatical from work, how and where would you spend it: Three months hiking and wandering through the state parks and three months wandering through Europe.
What was your first concert, and whom did you go with: Barry Manilow with my mom
What is your favorite comfort food: Matzah ball soup
What is your favorite TV show to binge-watch: "Survivor"
What book are you reading for pleasure right now: "We All Look the Same in the Dark" by Julia Heaberlin